This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. You can search through the full text of this book on the web at `http://books.google.com/`

Preface.

PARISH REGISTERS began in the reign of Henry VIII., when by a royal injunction, published by Cromwell, the Vicar General, in 1538, the parochial clergy were ordered to keep registers of all Christenings, Burials, and Weddings. It was a highly unpopular act, being generally believed to be the prelude to a new tax, hence it was not generally carried out.

In 1597 the Convocation of Canterbury made an ordinance, approved by Queen Elizabeth, that every minister should promise on his institution to keep the Register Book according to the Queen's instructions, that every parish should provide a parchment book, and that each year the minister should send a transcript to the Bishop of the Diocese. But these rules were often unobserved, and moreover there has been in the past the grossest carelessness on the part of both Bishops and Incumbents.

The rise of Parish Register Societies in so many parts of the country shows that at last people are alive to the necessity of preserving all that has been left us.

The old parish of Bury extends from Musbury and Waterfoot in the north to the junction of the Roach and Irwell at Blackford Bridge, embracing on the eastern side all the township of Heap, and forming an area of nearly 25,000 acres.

There was a chantry at Holcombe, known to have been in existence before 1539, and there were chapelries also at Heywood and Edenfield, both existing in 1552, but the date of foundation is in all three cases absolutely unknown.

The Registers at Holcombe begin in 1726, at Edenfield in 1728, and at Heywood in 1767, prior to which time they were doubtless all entered at Bury.

The Bury Registers are in excellent condition. The first volume, of parchment, is about 15½ in. long by 6½ in. wide. It consists of 134 leaves, and has been re-bound, apparently about the middle of the last century, and by an ignorant binder, the pagination being wrong in one or two places, whilst a few leaves have been cut into the quick.

The present volume forms about one-half of the first volume of the original Registers. It is an exact transcript, save in the following particulars:

The editors have in all cases used Arabic numerals for the days of the month, as is the case with the very great majority of the original entries;

They have in all cases printed in capitals the first letter of both Christian names and surnames, treating initial 'ff' as the ancient equivalent of our modern F;

They have printed the name of the month before the first entry of that month and have not repeated it after every date.

In all other respects the present volume is an exact copy of the original.

No attempt has been made in this volume to "edit" the portion of Register transcribed, as "editing" is outside the aims of our Society, but it is hoped that this Transcript with its complete Indexes may stimulate historians and students of Genealogy and Philology to local enterprize.

INDEX OF SURNAMES AND CHRISTIAN NAMES.

CHRISTENINGS . pp. 1— 90 inclusive.
BURIALS . . . . „ 91—168 „
WEDDINGS . . . „ 169—204 „

N.B.—As many variants of the same Surname occur, that variant has been selected for the Head-name which most closely resembles the modern form. The names in brackets are the other variants found in the period 1590-1616. Christian names have been given in their modern form.

An asterisk against the page number denotes that the name occurs more than once in the particular page.

At the top of each page will be found indicated the pages of this work which deal with Christenings, Burials, and Weddings respectively.

Entries relating to illegitimate children are Indexed under Surnames of Mother and reputed Father.

This Society has been formed to publish the Church Registers of those ancient Lancashire Parishes that have not already been printed. The transcripts will be made by thoroughly competent and trustworthy persons, under the auspices of the Society, and to be approved of by the legal custodians of the Registers.

As far as can be ascertained at present, of Registers commencing not later than 1700, there are the following numbers in the various Hundreds: Amounderness 11, Blackburn 16, Leyland 8, North Lonsdale 13, South Lonsdale 12, Salford 19, West Derby 27—making a total for the whole County of 106. It is not proposed at present to print any of the Registers of the Churches of more recent foundation.

The Society has several transcripts ready or preparing for the press, all of which have been made by competent antiquaries. It is purposed, so far as possible, to select Registers for printing from the various parts of the county, each in turn, so as to evoke general interest from the whole of Lancashire.

All Registers issued by the Society will be printed in full, and every volume will contain Indexes of Names, &c. Where there are gaps in the Parochial Registers, an effort will be made to supply them from the Episcopal Transcripts at Chester.

It is hoped that at least three volumes a year will be issued to the members. These volumes will be printed on hand-made paper, and will be uniform in size with those of the Lancashire and Cheshire Record Society.

Only a limited number of copies will be struck off, and they will be issued only to subscribers. The Council will be glad to receive offers to transcribe Registers.

The subscription is one guinea per annum, due on the first of January.

Rules.

1.—That the Society shall be called "THE LANCASHIRE PARISH REGISTER SOCIETY," and shall have for its object the transcribing and publishing of the Registers of the ancient Parishes of the County.

2.—That the affairs of the Society shall be governed by a Council, consisting of a President, Secretary, and Treasurer, with nine other members, to be annually chosen at the general meeting.

3.—That three members of the Council shall form a quorum.

4.—That the subscription of members of the Society shall be one guinea per annum, which shall entitle them to the publications for the year; but any member whose subscription shall be two years in arrear shall thereupon be removed from the Society, and shall not be re-admitted until all arrears have been paid.

5.—That the subscriptions shall be due on the first of January in each year, and that no work shall be issued to any member whose subscription is in arrear.

6.—That an annual meeting of the Society shall be held in the month of February, of which due notice shall be sent to all the members. At this meeting a report of the work of the Society, with a statement of the income and expenditure, shall be presented. These shall be annually published, together with a list of members and the rules of the Society.

7.—That so long as the funds of the Society permit, two volumes at least shall be issued to the members in each year.

8.—That no payment shall be made to any person for editing any work for the Society, but that the Editor of each volume shall be entitled to ten copies of the work so edited by him.

9.—That the Council may require any transcript to be examined by them before publication.

10.—That no volume of Registers be published without a full index of both Christian names and Surnames.

11.—That the Treasurer's accounts shall be audited by a member of the Society, who shall be elected at the annual meeting.

12.—That no alteration shall be made in any of the above rules except at the annual general meeting. Notice of any proposed alterations must be sent to the Hon. Secretary a month before such general meeting.
